

Impact of the Recession on Staffing

Although the number of respondents saying they added staff has fluctuated since the economy crashed, the number who say they cut staff dropped significantly in the past year. (Numbers from all surveys reflect staffing changes in previous year.)

